ORDER

The motion to dismiss filed by the appellee Oklahoma Corporation Commission is denied. The issues on appeal include the issues of whether the Oklahoma Corporation Commission properly intervened in the district court case, and whether the trial judge erred in finding that the Corporation Commission had exclusive jurisdiction over the appellants' request for injunctive relief. The Corporation Commission is a proper party appellee to this appeal. Rule 1.23(c) of the Oklahoma Supreme Court Rules.

This cause shall proceed as an appeal from a final order. 12 O.S. § 953, Gilliland v. Chronic Pain Associates, 1995 OK 94, 904 P.2d 73. Plaintiffs' motion to reconsider extended the time within which to review the December 3, 2007 final order. 12 O.S. § 990.2, Hammonds v. Osteopathic Hospital Founders Association, 1996 OK 54, 917 P.2d 6. This appeal may proceed.
